RESIDENT CARE PLAN—END-OF-LIFE CARE Loss & Grief Domain

NAME:

| Date | Issues/Nursing | Goal/Expected | Goal | Team Intervention | Initial |
|------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| | Dx | Outcome | Date ST LT | | |
| | Resident Grieving, anticipatory related to: Changes in physical condition Fear of loss, of process of dying, pain, Loss of control & independence Concern about how others will cope Perception of being a burden. | Grief resolution as evidenced by: 1. Expression of feelings re: change in condition and meaning of illness as able 2. Continue day to day individual activities as able 3. Expression understanding of dying process | | Facilitate grief work, develop trusting relationship Use non-judgmental, open approach—active listening Encourage resident to verbalize thoughts & concerns, feelings Monitor for depression Facilitate life review, past experiences, Assess strengths & support positive coping skills Assess for conflict, anger, guilt & provide opportunity for resident to work through these. Set limits to inappropriate behaviour. Review disease process and interventions as appropriate. Provide support without giving false hope. | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |